4. Websites participating in the Websites Class may be submitted simply by providing the address of the website.

Article 11. Availability of Online Services

1. PWO-EXPO 2022 uses the Virtuafil internet servers to provide online services such as form processing and webpage viewing. The Virtuafil server providers guarantee 99.9% uptime. However, neither the OC, the Jury, Virtuafil nor any of the Virtuafil Members hosting PWO-EXPO 2022, will bear any liability whatsoever, either in whole or in part, for a failure to process or to display data on the exhibition web pages, due to technical or other problems, before during or after the exhibition.

Article 12. Exhibitors' Obligations

1. By submitting application forms, the exhibitor accepts the regulations listed in Article 2 and confirms the truthfulness of all data entered.
2. Exhibitors whose entries are accepted, undertake the responsibility towards the OC to participate in the exhibition.

3. ARTIFICIAL DIGITAL MATERIAL AUTOMATICALLY DISQUALIFIES!
Virtual exhibitions expose the organizers to the risk of admitting artificial digital material into competition.
Artificial digital material is defined as:
 - Non-existent philatelic material, created with software;
 - Scans or photographs of philatelic material, obtained from third parties, incorporated into an exhibit;
 - Philatelic material digitally altered to change colour, perforations etc..The philatelic material being exhibited must physically exist and usually belong to the exhibitor. Exceptions: online catalogues, material for study, inquiries, references, etc.. To combat the risk of artificial digital material, the Jury has the right to request any exhibitor to send photographs of the material alongside their passport or other identity card. Failure to comply with such a request may result in immediate disqualification.

Article 13. Amendments

1. The OC, in agreement with the Board of Virtuafil, reserves the right to make changes to the present V-IREX, with simultaneous notification to the exhibitors.
2. The OC together with the Board of Virtuafil reserves the right to resolve any problem which may arise, not provided by the Regulations in Article 2.

Article 14. Legal Matters

1. The laws of Brazil shall govern the interpretation of these Regulations and any legal cases in PWO-EXPO 2022.
2. In the event of any discrepancies in the text arising from translation, the English text shall prevail.
3. Data supplied by the exhibitors will be used for the organisation and the evaluation of the exhibits and could be stored or forwarded digitally or on paper. Personal data of the exhibitors will be treated according with the Brazilian laws on the matter.
